THE GAZETTE.

WEDESDAY EVENING, JULY 21.

A LOVELESS MARRIAGE is much worse for a woman in every way than for a man. In the first place woman has the credit, whether she deserves it or not, of being much more refined. of possessing much more delicacy and sensibility than the "stronger sex." Being thus, higher, her degredation, when it comes, is much more thorough and terrible. Few things cab conduce to this result in a greater degree than the constant and intimate relation of married life with a man whom she does not love We have heard refined young women speak with disgust of the coarseness shown in the conversation of a class of their married acquaintances, and in many cases have traced this disagreeable trait back to its cause—a well known loveless wedded life. Then again, perhaps the woman who marries for support, for a home, an "establishment," or because she has never loved any one and fears that the present will be her last chance (dreadful thought), afterwards meets some one whom she can and does love. The result is easily forseen, either a life spent in the terrible effort to subdue an unbappy passion, or the divorce court. After all, the good old Quaker custom is best, due deliberation and reflection before "entering into the married state." Marrying in haste to repent at leisure is very fashionable now a days, but it is a fashion which can be profitable or pleasant only to the lawyers, and not for them if they have any pity for the unhappy victims of ante-nuptial foolishness and post-suptial misery.
